Poor sort of dwellings & in neighbourhood of bad char-acter - people of ordinary moral dwell. character would not live here - always w great many empty, small rooms
& the back ones are dark - Norfolk Gardens always had w bad reputation, no policeman wd. go down it alone - it is much improved now.

One of the poorest places in the district. Low, dirty & careless set of people. Houses old & unsanitary – usually 4 rooms. The square lies at the back of Duncan Rd, & is the sort of place that people wd never go down unless obliged.

At corner of Duncan Rd & Square is – about 6 people employed. Have another place at Derby Rd, Victoria Park

Miller's Sauce Factory

Mostly a poor class - The houses, wh. fac London Fields, were, like those in several other streets in this locality, built for a much better class than inhabit them - one family, at a rental of from £30 to £40 a year, being the builder's expectation in erecting them.

Houses were built for a better class. The admission of Bootmakers is a last resource of this kind of property. They damage it by turning the rooms into workshops, & by the noise they make at their work drive away any better class people from the street.

Short turning out of Blanchard Rd. The same poor class. Rents are a heavy burden in this neighbourhood, & the families constantly getting into debt. The brokers are active, & the County Court officials may often be seen delivering summonses.

nearly all good class houses, the larger ones being old-fashioned & well-built, with large & commodious rooms. The people are all in good circs, but the street is deteriorating, Boot manufs. having crept in. These find the large rooms answer the purpose of workshops very well, but the property naturally suffers from being so used.

Some of houses probably have single lodgers.
