S. FAITH'S BRANCH.

This last month has been an important month in the history of the "Army," as we held our first "Street" Mission on Nov. 4, having attempted to storm Duckett-street and capture some, at any rate, for the good cause of Temperance.

The result was most encouraging, not only in the number of pledges (a total of 16) and the large attendance on that night, but, above all, in the proof that it gave us—and particularly our generals—that we have in the Army a real keen body of officers and others, who are not content to enjoy the benefits of teetotalism themselves, but are ready and anxious to carry the good news to others. We thank God for such as these and take courage; we are bound to win victories for Christ, if only we trust in our Great Captain, and show Him that we are indeed in earnest, and in earnest we are, and steadily growing in numbers, having taken 29 pledges since last month, and knowing of many more who are making up their minds to join our ranks. We have had an invitation from the S. Pancras Deanery to send a deputation to speak about our Army. May God bless us all in our fight for Him against this deadly foe! Please remember: Annual Tem-

DAY & SUNDAY SCHOOLS

FOR THE CHILDREN OF THE CHURCH.

It is important that the parents of children who have been baptised, and so made members of the Church, should know where they can have their children taught the truths of their Bible and Prayer-Book. At the Baptism of their children the parents promised that they would see that their children were taught the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, together with the Catechism. As things now stand no child can be taught the Creed or the Catechism in any Board School, and of course it is not taught in any Nonconformist Sunday School. Thus it comes to pass that if the child of a Church Parent goes to a Board School and to a Nonconformist Sunday School, it may grow up in absolute ignorance of the Creed or of the necessity of Confirmation or of the Holy Communion. Of course, if a Church Parent allows the child to choose its own Sunday School no one is to blame but the parent, but in some cases parents who come into the parish are ignorant as to where Church Schools are. The list of Schools given below will be a guide for the future.

"Men and brethren, what shall we do?" S. Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized."

"For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

"Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not."

To Parents and God-parents.

You have brought this child to be baptized, and you have promised to train him (or her) up as a Christian, and to bring the child to the Bishop to be confirmed.

It is your duty therefore:

To pray for the child.
 To teach the child to pray.
 To guard the child from bad companions.

4.—To procure for the child instruction in Church doctrine.

5.—To guide the child to the choice of an honest profession.
6.—To take, not send, the child to Church.
7.—To see that the child is confirmed.
8.—To bring the child to the Holy Communion.

The Catechism.

HEAVENLY FATHER, look down in mercy, we beseech Thee, upon the children of Thy Holy Church throughout all the world, and especially upon the children of this Parish; that, being strengthened by Thy Grace, they may be loving and obedient in their homes and regular and reverent in Thy Holy Temple. May the blessing of Thy Holy Spirit rest upon the Bishop of this diocese, and upon all who teach and govern in the Catechism, that we may seek in all things to do Thy Holy Will. Pardon the weakness of our words, and take not Thy Holy Spirit from us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

My dear friends,

May I ask you to kindly retain this paper during Lent, placing it where it can be seen by the household. I trust that the subjects selected and the counsel and advice founded upon them may be greatly blessed and owned of God.

At this season I would earnestly ask all into whose hands this invitation may fall, to endeavour to attend as many of the services as possible, bringing their friends with them.

Praying that God may abundantly bless you and all work done in His name,

I am your sincere friend,

THE VICARAGE, ST.-JAMES-THE-LESS, December 23rd, 1897.

My Dear Friends and Parishioners,

I am thankful that we have now a Parish Magazine, in the pages of which our Parish doings can be recorded.

May I most heartily wish you all "A Happy New Year." We cannot tell what it will be to us temporally, but it will be what we make it spiritually, and I pray that the "Holy Spirit may so direct and rule our hearts" that this year we may show forth in our lives the beautiful fruits of His dwelling within us. Who does not want "love, joy, peace." For, possessing these three, our year will be happy. This is the secret, being filled with the Hely Spirit, and the promise is, "He will give the Holy Spirit to them that ask." Therefore if the year is not happy, if it is not a year of love and joy and peace, it will be our own fault because we have not asked for the Holy Spirit. Let that be our first quest, the object of our search, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and then all else will right itself.

Prayer, faith, work, these there must be on our part, and then God will do His, and the year will be crowned with blessing. Pray for yourself, for your clergy, and those working amongst you, for your fellow members of the Church, for the careless and indifferent - always have some one on your prayer list-Pray.

Have faith. "With God all things are possible." Then it is possible for our whole parish to be turned to God, for our Church to be crowded at every service, "according to your faith be it done unto you." Let our prayer be "Lord increase our faith."

Work. Yes, you who are a disciple of God. I will not say to you, "what are you doing, but what are you not doing which you might do. Why not teaching in Sunday School? Why not visiting a few houses weekly? Why not helping in the Men's Service or Women's or Children? Do not wait for your clergy to come and ask you to work but come and offer. The joy of working for Christ and of giving for Christ! Let us try and have more of that joy

As far as I am concerned, all I want is to be of service as far as possible to all in the parish. The Master "came not to be ministered unto but to minister," and if I can in His name be of service to any it will be a joyful privilege. Pray for me daily that I may discharge the duties of the position to which He has called me for His glory and the good of all in the parish.

With earnest prayers for God's rich blessing to rest upon all our efforts in the New Year.

I am, your sincere friend and Minister,

J. E. WATTS-DITCHFIELD.

Parish Intelligence.

The Rev. C. E. DIXON, M.A.

will commence his ministry on the 23rd of January and will preach in the evening of the 30th. Mr. Dixon is leaving St. George's, Sheffield, after three years of excellent work. Let our prayers ascend that the blessing of God may rest upon him and Mrs. Dixon in their coming among us. We must give them a hearty welcome.

The Rev. F. W. BALDWIN

needs no introduction He is known to you all, and has already won a place in all our hearts, by the genial side of Christianity which he always presents.

A. HINDLE, Esq., B.A.

Mr. Hindle, of Corpus and Ridley Hall, Cambridge, has joined us for the interval between his college course and ordination. He will be of great use in many ways, and we are thankful for his coming to our aid.

SPECIAL PREACHERS.

January 9th, in the evening, the Rev. J. F. Osborne, M.A., Vicar of St. Peter's, Highgate Hill, and on January 23rd, in the evening, the Rev. J. Barton, M.A., General Secretary of the Church Pastoral Aid Society, which is making a very substantial grant to this parish. We hope the offertory, which will be on behalf of that Society, may be very good.

LAY HELPERS.

We are glad to have the services of Miss Reed as Deaconess and Miss Willan, nurse. Mr. Smythe who has so long worked here and Mr. Kirkham, City Missionary, will all help to render our parish work effective. But all workers, clerical and lay, must be sustained by your prayers.

CHURCHWARDENS AND SIDESMEN.

The Vicar would take this opportunity of expressing his gratitude to the wardens and sidesmen for the great help they have rendered to him and for the warm manner in which they have co-operated in every way to make the services what they ought to be. When all have done so well, it is difficult to single out individuals, but special mention must be made of the sympathy, help and counsel of Mr. Churchwarden Harvey, which the Vicar can never forget, and which have | which he is called. The architect, E. Hoole, been of the greatest possible service. We are glad that he and Mr. Wheatly have consented to serve until Easter.

MUSIC.

CHURCH CHOIR.

We are all greatly obliged to Mr. Crowther for the time and great care which he has taken in making such a successful effort to render our Church music both good and congregational. The hearty and reverent way in which our beautiful Church of England service is taken is a great aid to true worship and our thanks are due not only to Mr. Crowther, but also to Mr. P. H. Bull, (who in addition to the good service rendered at our ordinary services has voluntarily taken the organ at the Men's Service), and to the men and boys who have so cheerfully given up their time to this important part of Church work.

CHURCH RESTORATION FUND.

Over Three Thousand Pounds has been expended on the repairs and alterations which were so greatly needed both inside and out of the Church. This is a very large sum to raise, aud our thanks are due to those kind friends who have so liberally responded to the Vicar's appeal. But a sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds has still to be raised to clear off the remaining debt and to put the Sunday Schools in a proper state of repair. We earnestly appeal to all who can to help to free the Vicar from this financial burden and so enable him to carry on the real work of the ministry to

Esq. F.R.I.B.A., (16, Finsbury Circus), deserves our warm thanks for the thorough and skilful manner in which he has designed and carried through the alterations. He has not spared either time or pains, and the result is that he has made the Church as beautiful and comfortable as we could wish. To the builder, Mr. T. D. Steed, the decorators, Messrs. Campbell, Smith and Co., the Gas and Brass. Worker, Mr. Harris, &c., we convey our thanks, as well as to the men who have carried out their instructions so well.

HELP

is needed for the Curate and Lay Helpers Fund The Church Pastoral Aid Society, the East London Church Fund, are aiding, but with a parish of 12,000 people there must be a sufficient staff if the parish is to be worked in an efficient manner. We are indebted to two ladies for help which has enabled us to engage a second Curate until the E.L.C.F. are enabled to make us a further grant, but even the sum to be raised for the staff-locally will be a large one. The retiring Incumbent receives a pension for life from the benefice, which after his long service to the parish is the least acknowledgement that could be rendered to him, but this limits the aid which the Vicar can render to the fund. He has therefore to ask as many as can both inside and outside the parish to kindly promise for one, three or five years some amount to this fund, no matter how small. The Vicar would gladly acknowledge any sums sent to him. Please think the matter over, and decide what you can do to support those working in your midst.

WANTED.

Subscriptions for Curate and Lay Helpers Fund, for work amongst men, amongst women, amongst children, for the Day Schools, for Sunday Schools, for the sick.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS.

Owing to the recent beautifying of the Church our Christmas decorations were limited but choice in character. We would specially thank Miss Robinson, the Misses Mann, Mrs. Little, Miss McConoclue, and Miss Pegler, who together with Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield were successful in giving our Church a Christmas aspect.

COLLECTING BOXES

for the Church Pastoral Aid Society, the East London Church Fund, the Church Missionary Society can be obtained from the clergy. Surely in every home there is room for a box on behalf of one or other of these societies. Those who already have boxes, are requested to let the clergy know in order that a correct list of them may be made.

can be made to the Churchwardens after the services on the week-day.

MEN'S SERVICES

We are glad to record that although so recently commenced, this service gives every promise of being not only very large but very useful. The attendance has been excellent, increasing Sunday by Sunday, and we have every hope that by God's blessing the some three hundred men already gathered together will soon be six hundred. Let each try to bring his man, and the thing will be done. The same methods which were so successful at St. Peter's, Holloway, are being adopted. The Orchestra play from 3 15 to 3.30 at which time the service commences. The Vicar himself has hitherto given all the addresses, but he hopes to get once in two months or so, some distinguished stranger to deliver a special address. Two Social Evenings have been held which were greatly enjoyed by the large number of men present. Tea and Coffee, Music and Recitation and Chat helped to make the evenings pleasant and it is intended to continue them at intervals. We may add that Mr. T. J. Reed, of 316, Old Ford Road, has kindly consented to act as Secretary of the Committee.

A MEN'S SICK CLUB

will commence on Saturday, January 8th, in the Infant's School from 8 to 9 p.m. Payments-Sick Money 6d., Burial, 1d. weekly. Benefits (a) Five Pounds on death of Member. "Member's wife.

(b) Ten Shillings for ten weeks in case of Sickness.

(c) Share in Annual Division at the end of the year.

A Club on these lines was most successful in Holloway. This year no less than £1 38. 4d. has been returned (to be a nice little help for Christmas) notwithstanding the large amounts returned in Sick and Burial money. We hope that all our men will join and form a strong and active Club. The Secretary is Mr. Goodwin, 128, Sewardstone Road, and the Treasurer, the Vicar.

A THRIFT CLUB

will commence on Saturday, January 8th, in the Infants' School from eight to nine o'clock. This will be open to Men, Women and Children, and will really be a Savings Bank. Any sum from 1d. upwards will be received and interest will be given. Branches of this Club will be formed in connection with the Mothers' Meeting, the Day Schools and Cranbrook Road Board School. We trust many will avail themselves of this Club to prepare for a rainy day. Join at once. Treasurer, the Vicar; Secretary, Mr. Hindle.

PRAYER MEETING.

This is held weekly on Friday night in the Girl's School at 8 o'clock. An hour is surely not too long a time to ask many more to join with us for Prayer and Praise. A strong prayer meeting means a strong Church. Will you try and come? The Friday before the first Sunday in the month the meeting is turned into a Communicants meeting, when all our Communicants are earnestly invited to attend. As a rule a stranger will give the address to the Communicants.

WOMEN'S SERVICE.

This has now been held for some weeks on Tuesday in Church from 3 to 4 p.m. The attendance has been very satisfactory, but we are sure many more could attend for this hour of worship. Make the effort.

A CHILDREN'S SERVICE

in addition to those on Sunday will be held every Thursday at a quarter to five. As this will be immediately after School hours we hope it may be convenient for a large number of children to attend. It will be short and every effort will be made to render it both useful and interesting.

DAY SCHOOLS.

We would call special attention to these old and excellent Schools. It is with no disrespect to other schools that we venture to say that there are few with a better record than those of St. James-the-Less. They have a splendid staff of teachers, excellent reports from the Government and Diocesan Inspectors, and every effort will be made to bring the appliances and furniture up to date. So we trust that parents will send their children on the re-opening day, Monday, January 10th. You are sure here of a good education both secular and scriptural.

and papers to be signed should be brought to the Church Vestry, at Nine o'clock in the morning, and not later than Ten o'clock, unless of special necessity.

HYMN BOOKS.

The Hymnal Companion (Third Edition) is used in the Church, A large number are in use for the free seats, but as the congregation is increasing so rapidly we would ask all seatholders, and those attending regularly, to purchase a copy of their own, and thus liberate those in use for strangers; they can be obtained from the Verger, Mr. Tyler, 47, Sewardstone Road.

MAGAZINE AND ALMANACK.

The Parish Magazine will be issued monthly and the Parish Almanack is now on Sale. We trust that every one will try to make their isssue a success by giving their order to any of the workers or to the verger. The Magazines will be delivered at any house if it is desired.

KNEELING IN CHURCH.

Our Saviour knelt in prayer; Daniel knelt three times a day upon his knees; Stephen knelt and cried with a loud voice at the moment of martyrdom; Peter knelt and prayed; and Paul knelt and prayed. In the morning service we hear the words "Let us worship and fall down and kneel before the Lord our Maker." Our Church's exhortation to communicants is "Make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees."

It is true kneeling is only an outward act, and as such, of secondary importance to the inward worship, but may not the outward act be the outward and visible sign of the consciousness of the presence of the Holy Ghost, and that it is by His blessed influence we are drawn to offer up prayer to our Father in Heaven.

No one would think of sitting when offering private prayer. Why should there ever be any other position in the House of Prayer? Our grand old poet Herbert says :-

When once thy foot enters into the church, be bare, God is more there than thou; for thou art there Only by His permission. Then beware And make thyself all reverence and fear. In time of service seal up both thine eyes,

And send them to thine heart.'

THE VICARAGE, ST.-JAMES-THE-LESS,

My Dear Friends and Parishioners,

The circulation of the first number of our Parish Magazine exceeded my expectations and conclusively proved that it supplies a felt want. I trust that the members of the congregation and others who find it useful will bring it under the notice of parishioners who do not as yet subscribe to it.

I am thankful that, by the blessing of God such signs of a genuine revival are to be seen on all hands. The large gatherings of Men on Sunday afternoons, of Women on Tuesday, of children on Sunday night and Thursday, in addition to the good congregations at our ordinary services all testify to an aroused interest and to the necessity for our constant waiting upon God, that He in His mercy may vouchsafe to give us a mighty blessing. It is for this that we seek. Our restored church, our organization, methods and work will avail nothing without the presence of the life giving Spirit permeating and controlling everything. The Holy Spirit is the Lord, the Giver of life and it is to Him that we look. Oh, that on Clergy, Chcir, Church Officials and Workers the Holy Ghost might fall, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you." Power what to do? nay, rather what can not be done? Then our Services would be seasons of blessing indeed; the children of the King would rejoice and be glad; and sinners would be converted and turn unto the Lord; doors which are closed would be opened to us; homes in which He is not found would receive Him as an honoured Guest; a parish in which the Church is alive, made and kept alive by the Holy Ghost. Is that our aim? Is it what we desire? or do we simply look to our Church as to a humanly carried on business. I ask you as colleagues in the Master's service to think upon this. Ask yourself over and over again "Is my share of work in connection with St .-James-the-Less being carried out under the distinct guidance of the Holy Spirit? If it is not, then what? can it be used of God? Can it be blessed of God. Do I teach in His Spirit? Do I sing in His Spirit? Do I preach in His Spirit? For whom do I work? to please myself, someone else or God? What is the foundation of our work? Says one

"I would not work my soul to save
For Christ that work hath done
But I would work like any slave
For the love of His Son."

Is it because "the love of Christ constraineth us?" Because the love of God fills our heart so full that we cannot help but work May we each exam ine our hearts and find out the motive for our work, find out whether it is done in His Name and find out whether we are doing alwe can. How few do too much and alas how many do far too little.

Love so amazing, sodivine.

Demands my soul.my ife, my all.

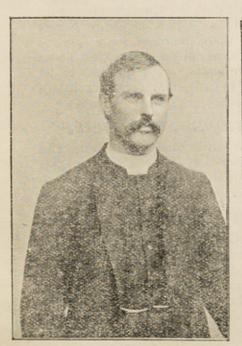

May it all be given
I again would especially ask you attention to our weekly prayer meeting on Friday evening. The average attendance is about thirty, and although I greatly rejoice at this, I feel that a much larger gathering might and ought to be found. If we believe in the New Testament at all we must recognize the power of prayer. It is by united prayer that the Church is blessed and the individualChristian is strengthened and the lost are found. Let me earnestly ask all who in any way work for our Church to endeavour to join with us in prayer week by week.

Praying that our Parish may be visited during the coming month by a great and rich blessing I am

Your sincere friend and Minister, and new will be thankfully received at the Vicarage by Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield. They will be most useful as every day there is need for them.
J. E. WATTS-DITCHFIELD.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

On February 23rd, there will be services at II o'clock and at 8 o'clock. The full list of special sermons and preachers for Lent will be issued later. We trust that all our congregation may avail themselves of the seasons for quiet which will be thus provided.

AN OPEN CHURCH.

On and after Monday, February 7th, we intend to have the Church open from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. A building which has cost some thousands of pounds and is the Parish Church ought to be available for private prayer and meditation. In a parish where thousands of persons would find it impossible, even if they and papers to be signed should be brought to so desired, to have that privacy and quiet which is desirable, it is only right that the Church should be open during the daytime. We trust that many will avail themselves of the open Church, and may enter, if only for a few minutes for prayer to God.

THE ARCHDEACON OF LONDON.

Archdeacon Sinclair has shown a warm interest in our work, and has kindly consented to visit us on Sunday, February 13th. He will give the address to the Men in the afternoon and preach in the evening. The Archdeacon is so well known that he needs no introduction, but we must all do our best to secure a good congregation at both services. Make this visit known to all your friends.

MIDNIGHT SERVICE.

Our Service on New Year's Eve will not soon be forgotten. The crowded congregation, composed largely of those who, alas! are never seen at our other services, revealed something of the work which lies before us in the coming year. The Church ought to be so filled at every service. Shall it be our prayer and effort that this may be so before the year ends. It can be done.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TREATS.

These were divided into three sections and held on different days. The Infants after a good Tea were thoroughly interested in the old story of Punch and Judy, and on leaving, each child was presented with an orange and a little book, while the elder girls and boys in addition to songs and recitations passed a very enjoyable hour, in witnessing some excellent conjuring tricks. The prizes were presented by Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield, to the following:

Bible Class: - Miss E. Worster.

Ellen Hendebourck, Mary Hatfield. 1st Class:—Miss F. Worster. Amy Fitch, Emma Ireland. 2nd Clars:—Miss H. Lear.

Maud Hauser, Lizzie Upson. 3rd Class: -Miss Hauser. Ethel Slaughter, Maud Shadbolt.

The Teachers and Elder Scholars' Tea was not held until January 20th. The room was beautifully decorated, and everything possible was done to render the evening bright and happy. The first part consisted of an excellent programme viz : Pianoforte Selection, "William Tell" and "Cavatina," Miss F. Chitson; "In old Madrid," Miss M. Potter; "The Outpost's Vigil," Mr. S. Walker; Recitation: "Old Scissors," Miss E. Upson; Trio: "Oh! stay, soft breezes," Misses B. Drew, B. Cook and A. Nott; Song: "She stoops to conquer," Miss Nellie Taylor; "Flight of Ages," Miss C. Hall; Recitation: "Peter the Piper," Rev. F. W. Baldwin; Songs: "Rory Darlin'," "The Gift of Rest," Madame Page-Davis; Recitation: "Yawcob Strauss," Mr. A. Hildyard.

The second part was occupied by the Vicar giving a short account of some of his experiences in Egypt and the Holy Land, and exhibiting curiosities illustrating the manners and customs of the people. As this was the first gathering attended by the Rev. C. E. Dixon and his wife, a very hearty welcome was accorded to them by the Vicar, and Mr. Dixon who was warmly received gave a short address.

The Committee of Miss Robinson, Miss Reed, Mr. Toye, Mr. and Mrs. Ellerton, Misses Worter and Hauser, are to be congratulated on the successful gatherings which they so well arranged and carried out.

MOTHERS' MEETING TEA

was held on January 14th. After an excellent tea, short addresses were given by the Vicar, Rev. F. W. Baldwin, Mr. Hindle, and Mr. Kirkham Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield will be glad for many more women to join any Monday evening at 6-30.

CHOIR BOYS' TEA.

Our Senior Warden, Mr. Harvey, most kindly entertained the Choir Boys to tea on January 14th. After an excellent tea prepared by Miss Robinson and others, the boys enjoyed a number of games and wound up the evening by three hearty cheers for their kind host and the Vicar.

A SPECIAL SUPPER.

was given on January 24th, to forty married couples chiefly through the kindness of Miss Willan. After the Tea which was substantial in character, songs and recitations were given by the Rev. C. E. Dixon, Miss Pack, Mr. Crowther, and Mr. Harvey. The Vicar gave a short address at the close.

THE SICK

and those desiring a visit from the clergy are desired to let the clergy have their names and addresses.

A MEN'S SICK CLUB

(b) Ten Shillings for ten weeks in case of Sickness.

(c) Share in Annual Division at the end of the year.

A Club on these lines was most successful in Holloway. Last year no less than £ 1 3s. 4d. was returned (to be a nice little help for Christmas) notwithstanding the large amounts returned in Sick and Burial money. A fair number of men have already joined but we hope many more men will join and form a strong and active Club. The Secretary is Mr. Goodwin, 128, Sewardstone Road, and the Treasurer, the Vicar. Join on Satuaday from 8 to 9 p.m.

A THRIFT CLUB

was commenced on Saturday, January 8th in the Infants' School, This Club is open to Men Women, and Children, and will really be a Savings Bank. Any sum from 1d. upwards will be received and interest will be given. Branches of this Club have been formed in connection with the Mothers' Meeting, the Day Schools and Cranbrook Road Board School. We trust many will avail themselves of this Club to prepare for a rainy day. Already nearly Five Hundred have joined this Club. Join at once. Treasurer, the Vicar, Secretary, Mr. Hindle.

WOMEN'S SERVICE.

This has now been held for some weeks on Tuesday in Church from 3 to 4 p.m The attendance has been very satisfactory, but we are sure many more could attend for this hour of worship. Make the effort.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES

on Sunday in addition to the Sunday Schools, two Children's Services are now held, the one in the evening being very largely attended, and in addition to those on Sunday, another is held every Thursday at a quarter to five. As this will be immediately after School hours we hope it may be convenient for a large number of children to attend. It will be short and every effort will be made to render it both useful and

DAY SCHOOLS.

We would call special attention to these old and excellent Schools. It is with no disrespect to other schools that we venture to say that there are few with a better record than those of St. James-the-Less. They have a splendid staff of teachers, excellent reports from the Government of Diocesan Inspectors, and every effort will be made to bring the appliances and furniture up to date. So we trust that parents will send their children where they may sure of a good education both secular and scriptural.

THE MATERNITY SOCIETY.

is in course of formation. Persons desiring its aid should apply to Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield, at the Vicarage.

MOTHER'S MEETING.

Mrs. Watts-Ditchfield will be glad to welcome any mothers who may wish to join the Mother's Meeting on Monday night, at 6.30 in the Infants schoolroom.

A BATH CHAIR

has been kindly given by an old friend W. G. Rushbrooke, Esq, and is available for the use of the sick, infirm and aged of the parish. Application should be made to the Vicar.

THE BAND OF HOPE

which is held every Tuesday at 6-30 ought to be attended by many more children, although we are glad to see the great increase during recent months. The meetings are bright and hearty and are thoroughly enjoyable. We trust that parents will send their children to be trained in the principles of Temperance.

MAGAZINE AND ALMANACK.

Over One Thousand Copies of our Parish Magazine were sold for January. This, for our first month was very good indeed, but we ought to get up to a larger number. We hope to make it very interesting, and trust all the members of our Congregation will aid us by subscribing regularly for it.

APPLICATION FOR SITTINGS

can be made to the Churchwardens after the services on week-days.

ROBIN DINNERS AT BETHNAL GREEN.

Five hundred poor waifs and strays were made happy for at least one afternoon last week. As the schoolroom could only accommodate two hundred and fifty at once the dinner was divided in two sections-one dining at three and the other at six o'clock. The dinner (served by Messrs. Lockhart) was excellent, and consisted of hot beef steak pudding (one for each child), potatoes, plum pudding, and coffee. If the donors could only have walked round the room how thankful they would have been that they had contributed to the fund - mingled perhaps with sorrow that they had not given more. Here was a child whose father and mother are both blind, the mother being stone deaf in addition. Think of the home in such a case, dirty and untidy, and filled with a large family, with practically no one to look after them. There you see another child, whose mother died a short time ago through drink, the husband having deserted her. He has now come back to his children, but is hardly ever sober; and so we might go on round the tables from child to child, each only a child, but a child with an history. Surely one dinner like this is ample justification for a fund. After dinner a short service was held in the church, when the Vicar in a few words tried to let the children realise the love of Jesus to them and His care over them. The faces of the children, wan and pinched, yet for the moment lighted up with gladness, was an index showing how greatly the treat had been enjoyed. "Please, Sir, may we come again tomorrow?" said one poor child. Alas! the answer had to be "No" and till another year I fancy the children will not see the like again.
