A carpenter lived with this woman, but has now left. She now works at his shop, & goes to him at night, locking the children up in a room here. The family have paid no rent since June, & are about to be ejected from the house. The B's are waiting an opportunity to summon her for not sending children to school.

all poor people - houses lately repaired, over looking Canal & ^{inhabitants} complain of boys & men bathing all day long - a great disgrace to the place - the police won't interfere as the Canal is private property.
