St Stephen's Church

Gas factory (Imperial Gas Co.)
 About 150 hands employed, most of whom are not making full time. Used to be 3 or 4 times the number employed, but the opening of new gasworks at Beckton, ^{7 or 8 years ago} has greatly reduced the quantity of gas made, & made the work here much more irregular. Some of the men go to Beckton to work, but it seems doubtful whether anything like the number who might have done followed the work, or whether they receive any invitation from the Compy.

A poor, migratory class - the center of a very poor district - from Nos. 28 to 58 (on both sides of the street) the people, though probably having no better means than the rest, are resp., & keep up a decent appearance. The others are of a lower & less provident type. Homes usually have 4 rooms & a kitchen, at 8/6 or 9/-

Large houses - people in good circles, but deteriorating as a class. A snobbish lot apparently, who treat the visitors with much incivility & refuse all information. The Act of Parliament does not compel the people to give the slightest information (not even to say whether or not they have children), & in many streets of this class it appears to be to a great extent a dead letter. A good many children are not scheduled at all, & the visitor has the very haziest notion as to whether or not they are attending school. Number of unknowns is pure guess.

50
